Sample Performance License

This agreement, by and between Frederick Frahm herein called Composer and _____ (City, State), herein called Performer, is for the purpose of granting a license to Performer to perform
Composer's composition, _____.

It is understood by the parties that Composer grants the right to Performer to present not more than two live performances of said composition during the calendar year _____. The Performer shall pay to Composer the sum of $20 for this license. Performer and Composer agree that sufficient copies of the score will be prepared at the Performer's expense from a master copy provided by the Composer and, if desired, retained on site in the performer's music library. The scores may be maintained in perpetuity. Composer will provide one full score, choral score, and a set of parts where applicable.

Composer grants to Performer permission to make one archival audio copy of a live performance or rehearsal, provided that Composer shall receive a copy thereof. Composer shall also receive one copy of the concert program which documents the date and occasion of performance.

Any royalty due the poet or librettist of said composition will be the responsibility of the Composer.

The Performer agrees that the Composer's intent shall be respected in performance, and that no changes, interpolations or deletions in the written form of the composition shall be made without Composer's consent. Any changes deemed "discovered" by Performer whether incorporated or not in future published or unpublished editions of the composition, shall become the property of Composer.

Payment of the above listed license fee is due the Composer on the anticipated performance date specified below:
